FOUR GOOD RACES RUN AT DELMAR.

Victories of Wreath of Ivy, Athena, Immortelle and King's Court Show Form.

I KNOW'S SUDDEN REVERSAL

Beaten Twenty Lengths Last Time Out, but Gallops Over Field and Easily Beats Lady Strathmore.

Athena, Wreath of Ivy, Immortelle and Kingscourt ran good and true races yester-day at prices varying from & against Athena and Immortelle to 7s and 12s against King's Court and Ivy.

Wreath of Ivy won the 2-year-old handi-cap, with % pounds up. She ran an excel-lent race yesterday. Folles' Beregere set the page to the last eighth. Here Forehand, with 115 up, excellently ridden by Troxier, came up on the rail. Booker made a bad mistake in drawing his whip on Folies. Ivy came along outside, swung away. Rainland, the favorite, began somewhat slowly, but closed resolutely.

It was a good race and truly ran save for Tom Kiley, who finished last. Previous time out Kiley beat good colts and finished first. Time previous to that he finished next to last, the last being a crab. Judge Braff ordered his entries refused in future.

Third Race—Canossa, Enigma, Allegrette,
Fourth Race—Fitzkanet, Joe Lesser, Maister.
Fifth Race—Emma Meyer, Hydrophobia, Chan Sixth Race-Ada N., Jake Weber, Orleans.

FITZKANET SHOULD WIN.

Three Good Mudders Meet in Handl-cap and He Will Be First. That mud-running little rascal, Maghoni, a fresh and fair filly, should win the first race at Delmar to-day. Her pull in weight is strong and she loves slop. Brown Vall-does not fancy weight nor Weird mud. Lord Neville had a chance, but is outweighted. Una Price will go well in mud, but Maghoni looks like a good thing.

BWEET DREAM OR FUGURTHA.

If Sweet Dream is up to a race the second purse is hers. If not, old Fugurtha should win. Star Gezer is a bear in mud. If they have managed to hook his bones a bit tighter with fiesh, he may do well. One More and Tom Crabb have mud-running proclivities, and may do to bet on to show. CANOBSA AND ENIGMA.

Canossa should win the third race. Our Lillie is not a mudder. Allegrette will go more or less well. Enigma is a royal mudder and will be hard to keep out of the mone.

FITZKANET IS CERTAIN.

Three royal mudders meet in the handicap. Fitzkanet is the best of them and will win. He is terribly good just now and the track will suit him. The weight is a mere feather to him. Maister should be second and Joe Lesser third, if Joseph is up to a race.

EMMA MEYER IN FIFTH, Emma Meyer seems to be the only mud-der in the fifth and should win. Chandoo can run in it, and will not mind weight, but he is not much and is slow and will carry a lot of it before he gets to the front. Hydropholis is a large fellow, strong and fast, and likes mud. He is heavily weighted, but will run a useful race.

SIXTH A TWO-HORSE RACE. Ada N. and Jake Weter are the pair in the last race. There is not a chance for anything to beat them and it is hard to pick a winner between them.

ORSINA MADE SHOW OF FIELD.

Won the Riverside Stake at Harlen Yesterday, Pulled Up to a Walk. Chicago, Aug. 10.-Orsina, the filly which C. Lind & Co. to be ruled off following her defeat the last time out, easily won the Riverside Stake at Hariem to-day. She led all the way and won by two lengths, pulled almost to a walk. Postmaster Wright was second and Lady Matchless third. The stake was a selling affair and was worth $2,280 to the winner. Orsina was entered to be sold for $300, and was run up to $2,500 and bought in by Pat Dunne for the customary a $5. eather clear and cool; track fast. Sum

HIGHLANDER WON CATSKILL STAKE. O'Neill and Redfern Divided Riding

Honors With Two Firsts Each.
Saratoga Springs, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Fair weather, a slow track and small fields prevailed at the seventh day of Saratoga's race meeting. The stake event, the Catskill, was valled at the seventh day of Baratoga's race meeting. The stake event, the Catskill, was taken by R. T. Wilson's Highlander, with Redfern up. Castalism made the pace during the early part of the race, but could not hold it in the going and was passed in succession by Eisle L., Highlander and the Musketeer, Highlander winning in a driver in the last 200 yards of the course.

In taking the next to the last jump in the steeplechase Holland and Your Grace collided and went into the ditch. Holland came off uninjured, but Your Grace died from the off uninjured, but Your Grace died from the injuries received. Favorites Have a Bad Day-Monte Carle Wins the New York Stake, With Dan T. a Contender.

New York, Aug. 10.-The Metropolitan Grand Circuit season opened to-day at the Empire City track with 5,000 spectators present, 'a fast track and ideal racing

In the opening event, the 2:18 pace, Funston sold at $50 to $30 to the field, but only was a moderate second to the big Califor-nia gelding, Mush, who won in straight eats with speed to spare. The talent lost again in the 2:15 trot, for which the gray gelding, Jim Ferry, sold at $50, and the field at $70. He proved to be a counterfeit, as George Muscovite took the lead in both heats, winning by a length from Norrie. The 2:99 New York stake of $5,000 brought out a strong field of eleven, Monte Carlo seiling for $50 to $70 for the field. The favorite got the best of a flying start, led all the way, but only won by a neck from Dan T., who came with a great rush in the stretch. Dan T. won the second by a fine drive in the stretch, but broke in the third. Monte Carlo winning by two lengths.

For the 2:12 pace, Frank Yoakum sold at $100 to $30 for the field. The speedy, but erratic, Beauseant went off with a rush, winning the first heat, only to be distanced in the second, which Donna McGregor won. In the third heat Dart won from the mare by a neck. In the fourth he made a bad break and Donna McGregor won in a walk. Summary:

GOSSIP OF THE QUARTER STRETCH

C. Booker Is Collecting a Stable-Weakness of Western Jockey Club. C. Booker ran Custus up to $800 and got him after the last race yesterday. J. F. Daniels bought him out of a selling race some time ago from T. F. Sellers, won three races with him and made $150 on the side races with him and made $150 on the side in the original run-up. He is a handy colt. Booker is getting together quite a stable. He originally bought Centie for $400, won several races, and traded her for Brown Vall. She won five, or six races and he sold her for $500. Then he bought Sid Silver for $300 and won him out in ten minutes. As he gets half of the $300 run up on Custus that colt only stands him $650, which is oheap. Booker is an exercise boy and brother of A. W., H. and J. Booker, the jockeys. A fourth jockey brother was killed in a fall at New York two years ago.

Frank O'Neill is a jockey for true. On the opening day at Saratoga he had a bad fall on South Trimble. The horse fell and lay down as if killed for ten minutes. O'Neill was much shaken. He came right back with two winners the next day and has ridden an average of two winners a day at Saratoga. He wins on 20 to 1 shots with regularity. He is the race rider of the East this year and makes form look like foolishness. Two stakes on Saturday was with regularity. He is the race rider of the East this year and makes form look like foolishness. Two stakes on Saturday was his record.

The closing up of Harlem and the trouble at Washington Park expose the weakness of the Western Jockey Club, an organization which assumes autocratic functions. If a man like E. E. Farley, accused and twice convicted of "ringing," can close up and vitally embarrass two great race tracks, what could some other man do with the same money?

It is funny to see the Western Jockey Club preparing to refuse dates to Hot Springs and other tracks. Hot Springs can and will get the dates and the W. J. C. will be glad to give them, also to any other reputable track that asks for them and has the sand to back its request up with a club. The W. J. C. does not amount to Sucents. It was begotten in avarice, nurtured in jealousy and reared in selfishness. It has not done anything for the turf save to reinstate a lot of parties ruled off by other jockey turf-governing bodies and ruled them off again when they got a chance to show their true colors.

Before Milton Henry, who was set down

Before Milton Henry, who was set down at Hawthorne last week for pulling Grand Opera, went to France, Joe Murphy ruled opera, went to France, Joe aurphy raised him off for alleged pulling Joe Ullman at Ban France to. When Henry was ruled off in France the American newspapers wanted to make it a casus belli. If Henry was ruled off twice at home, why should Americans kick if he was ruled off once abroad? It seems rather a pity that Judge Brady should feel obliged to refuse the entries of the colt Tom Kiley for inconsistent runever was seen on a race track, but when a man has nerve to run a horse as Kiely was run he deserves to get away with it.

Kinioch and interceded for him, the ownersaid:

"I think McLemore is all right and never did anything wrong. But if we let him race we would have to let others who are guilty race, too."

The refusal of the entries of McLemore is one of the "jokes" of the opera-bouffe Delmar meeting, which would be a huge joke all through were it not so serious for bettors and horse owners.

There were curious angles to the races of Tom Kiley. In the first race, the bad one, P. H. Hickey, owner of Kiley, was passing Louis Cella's block just before Cella asked him how he liked his colt.

"He is fit as I can make him. I should win. But I am not riding him. It is up to the jockey."

Mark Gumberts, to whom Watson is under contract, heard the remark. Gumberts went to the padock, where Watson was mounting Kiley:
"Look here," he said. "the fellow that owns this coit is in talking to Celia and making you the 'fall guy.' I have bet $300 on this coit. Give him all you have got." Kiley was on the inside in the heaviest mud. If Watson wanted to get him beaten all he had to do was to break with the field and rate with it. The deep mud would stop Kiley. But Watson got a running start and beat such fast mud coits as Ben Adkins, Perla and Folies Bergeres away from the barrier. Watson took the best going with him, and held his head up well and rode him properly. After a quarter, Kiley quit.

with him, and held his head up well and rode him properly. After a quarter, Kiley quit.

Watson drew his whip and almost cut him in two. All this was set forth in The Republic's description of the race, and stress laid on the fact that Hickey did wrong in starting a good colt short and getting a jockey in trouble.

Two days later Tom Kiley came out again. He was an 8-to-1 shot. He jumped out in front, led all the way and won as he pleased.

It was the worst form reversal of the season. Bettors gaped and swore. Then John Murphy, Louis Cella's betting commissioner, came along cashing tickets. He overheard a discussion about the race.

"It was the worst ride I ever saw," said Murphy. "He got him knocked down, cut off and everything else."

Murphy should know. He is the paid timer and track watcher of Louis Cella.

He was formerly a jockey and supposed to know his business. He probably did know it in this case. Anyhow he knew enough to bet on Kiley at the right time, and that is what counts. When a fellow is "in with" the winning race he is apt to pardon the losing one.
